

World War One Memorials in Reading

The Trooper Potts VC Memorial Site

Christchurch

The Memorial is in the form of a wooden plaque inscribed in black. The Church is located on the south side of Christchurch Road not far from its junction with Basingstoke Road.

Further details can be found in the National Inventory of War Memorials - go to

<http://www.ukniwm.org.uk/server/show/conMemorial.9137>

The following list of names recorded on the memorial contain basic information about the men. This includes, name, address, regiment and regimental number and date of death where known. Dates are written in international format ie YYYYMMDD. xn indicates not found in CWGC records

The table is arranged in strict alphabetical name order and some men will have more than one entry. This is because they have held more than one regimental numbers or addresses. Where regimental numbers are shown -999 indicates 'do not know' and -5 or -7 indicates an officer.

The information is drawn from a database of men who served in WW1 from Berkshire. Any corrections or additional information would be gladly received. E-mail john.chapman@purley.eu
